DESCRIPTION

Describe your farm / holding in maximum 150 words

Mention how long you have been there; how much land you have and what it is used for; what livestock you have; what organic methods you use; your main activities and the kind of help you want from WWOOFers; what organic skills you can teach; and also what non-organic methods you use.

Feel free to explain your philosophy and aims for the future, other interests you and your family have e.g. music, and any other activities/skills you feel you could specifically share with/teach WWOOFers e.g. bread making. Give any special instructions for contacting you (e.g. please write or only phone in the evenings), for finding/travelling to your home and anything else you want to communicate to make the WWOOF experience run as smoothly as possible for you and WWOOFers. Please make it clear if you are particularly interested in: short-term, long-term or weekend WWOOFers.

HOST DECLARATION

I would like to be listed as a WWOOF host with WWOOF UK and confirm that

- my farm or property is organic or in conversion and / or uses ecologically sound techniques
- I am interested in receiving visits from UK and international WWOOFers
- I will reply to all enquiries (for postal, those that include a SAE or International Reply Coupon)
- I will ensure that WWOOFers are current members of a WWOOF organisation by checking their membership on first contact and their cards on arrival
- all help is voluntary and in exchange for food and accommodation

I agree that WWOOF shall only be responsible for providing a means of contact between host and WWOOF members and that no liability shall attach to WWOOF for any accident, sickness, injury, loss, damage or the like howsoever arising whether at the above premises or otherwise.

I confirm that I have insurance which will cover any WWOOFing activity on my farm or holding for the duration of my membership.
